DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Due to the new grounds of rejection, this action is Non-Final.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 27 July 2005. These drawings are accepted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 14 is drawn to a device for installation on a vessel neck, however, the claim positively recites structure of the neck in the last paragraph. It is unclear if the Applicant intends to claim the combination of the vessel neck and the device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-3, 7, 10 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kirk, Jr. US 4,366,921.

Kirk '921 teaches a container neck with a distribution component, a ring (22), a collar (23), and whereby ribs (25) extend on the outer surface of the ring the height of the skirt and come in fitting contact with the collar inner surface. Because of the interlock and the resilient nature of plastic, the skirt is inherently deformed radially inwardly by the collar.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 17-22 are allowed.
8. Claims 4-6 and 16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
